Mobile SDKs

Supercharge your native app with consumer-generated content—now easier than ever.

Enable developers to build consumer-generated content into any iOS or Android application, expanding your content to reach a wider mobile audience.

Bring the power of CGC to more consumers

Insert consumer-generated content directly into any Android and iOS app, increasing the reach of your content to influence more shoppers and gaining additional insight as consumers shop across devices.

Easy, fast, simple

With a few lines of code, you're good to go. No support tickets or heavy lifting, and your time-to-market is significantly faster.

Real-time analytics

Get information and data instantaneously to help you win in mobile app consumer retail.
